

Developing BVA student council work after Erasmus exchange with the Greek school in Trikala:

Students help students

Who should be a trustful student who helps other students with their problems?

Students of the student's council or chosen students from the school

Do those students need some kind of special preparation?

They should be able to listen carefully to the student's problems
They should (maybe) have a pedagogical education

What are the tasks of a trustful student?

Listen to problems,
Help students from a difficult situation,
Settle fights between students,

Where should the place to meet them be?

In the first or second floor,
Separated from other students in the breaks,
• That they can talk to the trustful student without the fear of being listened,
